RE: Harvest Service at St Giles'

Dear Parents/carers,

As you may know the school are going to St Giles' Church next Thursday (26th September) for our Harvest Service. This is earlier than we have gone in the past.

Class R are still settling into school, and we are wary that next week will be their first full week, therefore by Friday we will be prepared for more tears, due to tiredness.

The class are yet to sit in any of our worship sessions and we are concerned about how they will cope in the situation at the Church, in terms of seeing you, performing in the Church and in front of the whole school. Therefore, we have made the decision that they will not be attending the service.

We understand your disappointment in this and so that you and they do not miss out altogether we will get them to do their "performance" for yourselves (and extended family) on Monday 30th September at 2:45pm in the school hall.

We have not taken this decision lightly and have thought carefully about the children's well-being.

We thank you in advance for this support.

Yours sincerely

Miss S Jones – Headteacher
