What are some current issues that you could include?                      You will be using that in a poem tomorrow. Plan the figurative language that you are going to use in your poem. What is the message you’d like to portray? How can you inspire others with your words? (3) Review the speech/poem again.                      How does MLK describe the future nation he wants his children to live in?                      What is the message of this passage?                      How has MLK used language/techniques to make his speech memorable and persuasive? What are your dreams for our future world? Write a poem about it.                      Think about how you will structure your poem e.g. will you include repetition? Will you include same number of lines, how do you want it to read? Start to write – think really carefully about your language choices. Every word Martin Luther King chose and expressed in his speech was there for a reason. (4) The Boy, the Mole the Fox and the Horse. - can you remember this?                      Task will be attached/posted on dojo.
